

Thank You

Dear colleagues,

I have taken note of your concerns regarding working hours, training, and the necessary resources to fulfill your tasks. Your feedback and concerns are legitimate, and I want to assure you that your well-being and job satisfaction are of utmost importance to us.

We understand the challenges you face, especially those working non-traditional hours. We are looking into possible solutions to make your work more flexible and meet your needs. The introduction of the new app is one initiative to improve schedule management, and we hope it will address many of the expressed concerns.

I also want to reassure you that we are taking the union's request for training and resources seriously. Every employee deserves to have the tools and training they need to excel in their role. We commit to working proactively with union representatives to resolve these issues.

Lastly, I thank you for your dedication and commitment to our organization. Your voices are heard, and we are determined to take the necessary steps to ensure a fair and supportive working environment for all.

Yours Sincerely,

Time Manager Team
